

Richard Leland Hendershot Scholarship

Description:

Funded by the Richard Leland Hendershot Scholarship, this scholarship supports students seeking degrees in Biblical Studies, Missions, or Business. Richard “Rick” Hendershot was an ordained minister, certified public accountant, interim dean and professor of religion and accounting at Strayer University. Rick’s passion was serving the Lord. He carried his faith into the secular community by serving on numerous boards for non-profit organizations and served as Chairman of the Board for Prince William Chamber of Commerce, and treasurer for Fauquier County Chamber of Commerce. Giving back to the community that he lived was paramount.

Signature of program:

This scholarship supports students to be effective Christian leaders in their community according to their God given talents. The goal is to teach students to become men and women who will use their Christian education to be actively involved in the Great Commission. The program will enhance critical thinking, biblical and spiritual skills in order that students will have the Christian foundation to be leaders who step out in faith.

Requirements:

Applicants must meet the financial requirements identifying them as in need of scholarship funds. Preference will be given to applicants who reside in Fauquier, Prince William, Spotsylvania Counties and Fredericksburg, Virginia.

Introduction to the Richard Leland Hendershot Scholarship:

Your Richard Leland Hendershot application should reflect your desires of working in ministry or secular business. Applicants must describe their vision and purpose for receiving this scholarship and how they will use the knowledge obtained to minister in their community.
